AMERICAN LITERATURE 1. The Colonial Period (1492â€“1700) Native Americans, the first inhabitants of the continent, did not develop anything we can call "literature"â€• their stories and poems were spread orally, which means the American literary history begins with the age of colonialism. The character of early American literature is strongly influenced by several factors: It was the era ...

In the general outlines of a plan of literary study which is to cover the entire history of English and American literature, the following directions, it is hoped, will be of value. 1. Fix the great landmarks, the general periodsâ€"each {5} marked by some towering leader, around whom other contemporary writers may be grouped. In Great Britain the several and successive periods might thus be ...
