In The Source of Magic, Bink finds his home life to be rather pester-some of late. His wife Chameleon Every Xanth novel features a different main character, excepting the first four. Bink, once again, is the main focus for this novel (his son Dor will be the focus of the following two), and for that reason I couldn't be happier.

The Source Book of Magic co-authored by Michael Hall PhD and Barbara Belnap M.S.W., is in my opinion, the best book Michael Hall has written. It contains all the NLP protocols and processes, known at the time of printing; though that is a generalisation and I'm sure there were, and certainly are others now.
